Subject: DOCKET NO. SDWA-10-2013-0080 / Groundwater Sampling Activities - Wednesday, September 25, 2013 Update
Date: Thursday, September 26, 2013 2:12:52 PM

Rene,

On Wednesday, September 25th, ARCADIS re-sampled wells YVD-12 and YVD-18 for nitrate.

Yesterday, we were informed that the cooler containing samples collected on Monday, September 23 (YVD-16, YVD-11, DC-09, and YVD-07) and Tuesday morning (DC-01, YVD-02, and YVD-05D), September 24 was not delivered to TestAmerica as scheduled.

The cooler was delivered by ARCADIS personnel to the FedEx Sunnyside drop-off location on September 24 at 3 pm. FedEx transported the cooler from Sunnyside to the FedEx facility in Yakima. However, the cooler remained at the Yakima facility missing the Tuesday night transport to Spokane. It was transported by FedEx to Spokane on Wednesday, September 25 and delivered to TestAmerica at 9:15 am on Thursday, September 26. Only samples collected on Tuesday, September 24 (DC-01, YVD-02, and YVD-05D) remained in the 48-hour holding time for nitrate. The samples collected on Monday, September 23 (YVD-16, YVD-11, DC-09, and YVD-07) were outside of the allowable hold time for nitrate analysis. All other analytes for samples collected on both days remain within their respective holding times.

ARCADIS is resampling wells YVD-16, YVD-11, DC-09, and YVD-07 today for nitrate only.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you

Tom
